

Ordinary Seaman – Fisherman

Gather Resources Madagascar

Description

Fisherman / Ordinary Seafarer is responsible for assisting with deck operations and longline fishing activities. This role ensures the safe, disciplined, and dignified functioning of shipboard operations, combining seamanship skills, teamwork, and ceremonial respect for maritime traditions.

Qualifications

- Fluency in English is required;
- Knowledge of other languages is a plus;
- A demonstrated background in maritime operations;
- Proven, at least two years, of professional experience as a fisherman long line;
- Familiarity with fishing equipment;
- A good understanding of ship operations, including maintenance and safety practices; A commitment to maintaining high safety and service standards;
- Hold mandatory certificates requested on this position;
- Proactive attitude to meet the demands of life at sea;
- Strong teamwork and communication skills, with the ability to work effectively in a multicultural environment;
- A positive mindset and willingness to adapt to the dynamic nature of life at sea;
- Must pass a pre-employment medical exam;
- Team player, positive attitude, Physical strength and stamina;
- Comfort with isolation and long periods at sea and Acceptance of rotation schedule and onboard responsibilities.

Responsibilities

- You operate and maintain fishing gear and deck equipment;
- Participate in net deployment, handle catch safely, hygienically, and storage, ensuring compliance with international standards;
- Ensure compliance with maritime safety and hygiene standards;
- Ensure the smooth sailing and daily operational excellence of vessel;
- Support the day-to-day deck operations, promote a secure environment, and embody the high standards of hospitality;
- Keep the ship running smoothly;
- Maintain the ship by cleaning, painting, and handling other upkeep duties;
- Perform general deck duties including mooring, anchoring, and cargo handling;
- Create a positive environment, make each journey safer and more enjoyable.